

POLICY OF BEAR CREEK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FOR THE PREVENTION OF ABUSE OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Statement of Purpose:

When the disciples tried to keep the children away from Jesus, he was quick to respond, "Let the children come to me." Jesus taught that children were to be included and provided for within the community of faith. As Christians, we must take our responsibility to our children very seriously. We fail in our responsibilities if we neglect to take adequate precautions against abuse in our church. This policy attempts to do just that for our church.

The purpose of this policy is to protect all persons that come to us, to protect both our staff and volunteers from potential false allegations of abuse and to limit the extent of legal liability of the church.

Criminal History	refers to any items reported on a person's criminal records including arrests, charges, indictments, convictions, probations and deferred adjudications.

1.0 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- By fostering awareness of appropriate, as well as inappropriate behavior with, or in the presence of, protected persons, Bear Creek United Methodist Church, as part of the body of Christ, will demonstrate Christian like love and respect for one another.
- Bear Creek United Methodist Church recognizes that certain workers have exceptional talents for teaching and supporting the growth and development of protected persons, and wishes to encourage them to use their spiritual gifts. Bear Creek has set certain criteria for those workers who choose to serve in ministries in order to promote and protect the well being of Protected Persons.
- It is not the intent of the membership of Bear Creek United Methodist Church to be judgmental, for we are all accountable to God. The membership of Bear Creek United Methodist Church will rely on God's wisdom in developing, implementing and carrying out God's will through this policy. Compassion and truth will be the guiding forces for any investigation, reporting or follow up action that results from the procedures as outlined in this policy.
- Congregational support is critical for adherence to this policy. The limited nature of our resources and our desire to devote as much time and effort as possible to the work of the Lord, mandates that this policy be fully understood by every member of our congregation and church family. This will enable church staff and leadership to do what is necessary to preserve the church's resources for the work of the Lord.

1.0 BEHAVIOR

1. The following behaviors are prohibited for Workers:

- Threatening or intentionally inflicting emotional or physical injury.
- Committing any sexual offense or engaging in any sexual contact

- Physical discipline, such as spanking

2. Touching to comfort or affirm a protected person in an age-appropriate manner is permitted. Side-by-side hugs are suggested instead of full-body contact. Appropriate touching need not be completely avoided but is acceptable only in public. Workers shall be aware of how it looks and how the person being contacted may interpret the contact.

3. The following are unacceptable and will not be tolerated at any ministry:

- Tobacco
- Alcohol
- Illegal drugs
- Foul or offensive language

The said examples are not "all-inclusive". Any appropriate behavior that contravenes the Statement of Purpose shall be considered prohibited behavior.

This will be determined on a case by case basis by the senior clergy and the applicable director. In such cases, the determining factors will be the best interests, safety and well-being of the protected persons. Any applicant or worker whose criminal

APPENDIX F

POLICY OF BEAR CREEK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FOR THE PREVENTION OF ABUSE OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Age-Appropriate Discipline Methods - Children

Bear Creek United Methodist Church

Our goal is to ensure that every child who participates in a Ministry is offered a safe environment where God is the center of all that we do and say.

To do this, we need the children to follow these basic rules:

1. Treat everyone with kindness and respect.
2. Follow directions given by the teacher or leader of a ministry.
3. Stay in the classroom at all times unless escorted by a teacher or leader.
4. Remember, there is no fighting, name calling or rude behavior.
5. Use all equipment properly. Treat property with respect and clean-up after yourself (remember this is God's House)

As parents and teachers we realize that children are filled with energy. However, should a child's behavior become disruptive to the class or any ministry, the following actions shall be taken.

Pre-School:

1. The teacher/leader shall redirect the child's focus to an activity.
2. A verbal warning and separation from the source of disruption.
Ex: separate children, put toy away, etc.
3. Time-out in the classroom. Use this time to explain to the child why it is important to exercise proper behavior.
4. As a last resort, the parent/guardian shall be located and asked to sit with the child or remove them from the activity for that day.

Elementary:

1. The teacher/leader shall redirect the child's focus to an activity.
Ex: ask the child to help.
2. A verbal warning and separation from the source of disruption.
Ex: separate children, put toy away, etc.

APPENDIX G

POLICY OF BEAR CREEK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FOR THE PREVENTION OF ABUSE OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Age-Appropriate Discipline Methods – Youth Covenant of Conduct

Bear Creek United Methodist Church

Galatians 5:22-23

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with passion and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, competing against one another, envying one another.

I agree to participate in activities of the UMYF and other youth sponsored activities.

During these events I agree to:

- treat all persons, regardless of race, religion, and culture, with respect and consideration
- respect the facility we are using
- portray a positive role model for others by maintaining an attitude of respect, loyalty, patience, integrity, courtesy, tact and maturity

During these events I agree to not:

- use profanity
- purchase or participate in the use of drugs, alcohol or tobacco
- participate in inappropriate displays of affection or sexual activity
- conduct myself recklessly such that I cause injury to myself or others
- make terroristic threats that would indicate intent to do bodily harm to self or others
- participate in criminal mischief, reckless damage or destruction of property, structures, equipment, or vehicles, and theft
- bring or use any weapon(s), fireworks, pets, pornographic materials or any other inappropriate items
- abuse others; physically (e.g. strike, spank, shake, slap), verbally (e.g. humiliate, degrade, threaten), sexually (e.g. inappropriate touching, exposure or comments), or mentally (e.g. inconsistent standards, communicating one behavior and rewarding the opposite)
- use cell phones, iPods, tablets, or other electronic devices without the permission of the Director of Youth Ministries or the adult in charge of the youth event. While using an electronic device, I will uphold the values of the youth ministry of Bear Creek United Methodist Church as outlined in this Covenant of Conduct.

Above all, I agree to have fun at UMYF and all youth sponsored activities.

I understand that:

- any damage that should occur because of my negligence, I am financially responsible.
- all penalties are left up to the discretion of the Director of Youth Ministries, or his/her representative, with consultation of other Youth Counselors. Note that penalties may include the possibility of being sent home at the parents expense.
- The Bear Creek Youth Covenant of Conduct does not cover all situations. In the event that something arises that is not mentioned, the Director of Youth Ministries, or his/her representative, reserves the right to make all necessary decisions.

I have read the "Covenant of Conduct" and fully agree with the conditions. I understand that I will be excused from participating in UMYF or other youth sponsored activities if I violate any conditions of this covenant.
